Attorney Piazza attended Seton Hall (B.A.); Fordham University (J.D.), and was admitted to the Connecticut Bar in 1972, The U. S. Court of Appeals in 1974, and the U. S. Supreme Court in 1975.

"This book will serve as a useful reference for those contemplating being involved, or who are involved in the civil justice system. I know of no other volume that sets out as clearly as yours exactly how the system works. My congratulations on an excellent and interesting book."

William F. Gallagher, Esq.
New Haven, CT

"The civil jury system is often criticized, usually by those who don't understand it. Mr. Piazza has set out the entire process, both in and out of court, of the resolution of injury claims. Tony's book will reduce substantially the number of critics."

Eugene K. Swain, Esq.
New London, CT

"War is hell, litigation can be torture. But the more you know about the system, the better you will do. This book is the insider's candid expose of how the personal injury system works in Connecticut."
